FIRST PRES Newsletter

September 2021

Dear Friends,

The summer has flown by. Time always seems to move so much more quickly than we want it to. And there are other times when it seems to creep by at a pace that is slower than slow. We would all like to have time slow down when we are in the midst of an adventure or visiting with loved ones we have not seen in awhile. We would like time to move faster when we are waiting for test results or working through an onerous task.

I took an online class this summer to help me become better with meditation and mindfulness. These are two practices that I have used at different times in my life. They are great tools for helping us manage the ups and downs in our lives. So many of us spend time looking back or looking forward and we forget to cherish the very moment we are in. They also help us to remember the impermanence of so much in the world. These skills help us become more able to stretch when we need to, to contract where it is necessary. Kind of like time does.

As we move into the fall, we are going to take time to think about our future. Where is God calling us? How can we use our property to be a blessing to others? Our presence here for nearly two-hundred years is a testimony to God's grace. How do we use our history to help us move into the future? I am sure many of you have participated in these kinds of conversations in the past. The answers have often been the same year after year.

Now is the time for us to be bold and creative, to remember that God works in ways that are often mysterious. We need to have courage as well, for this is not an easy journey. I am confident that as we work together, as time marches forward, we will discover together what God has in store for us. We may find ourselves surprised. We might become energized. We might have a sense of new purpose and connection with the community around us. Who knows where our discussions will lead us? What I am sure of is that we need you to participate. We need to open our hearts to the work of the Holy Spirit. We need to be ready to be scared and disappointed and thrilled and hopeful. Bring your whole selves to this work of the church. The time is now.

See you soon!

Cathy

Church Building Meeting

Our Church building is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Our congregation has been here for nearly 200 years. We will be meeting at 6:30 pm on Thursday, September 23 to start talking together about the future. All are invited to attend. See Carl Slenk for more information

Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas

Shop now for your Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child shoebox! By shopping now and adding one or two items a week till collection day in November spreads the cost out and might even make two boxes possible this year. Back-to-School items are now in the stores. Walmart, has a great section at minimal cost. Hobby Lobby has a section for Samaritan items. Dollar stores are a good source for toothbrushes, kid themed band aids and hair goods. Boxes and information are available at First Pres!! Please let Lis Slenk know if you would like 1 (or 2 or 3?). Let's share the joy and love with kids and their families around the world. Together we make a huge difference in so many lives
